

Phone Call: Making a Doctor's Appointment

[Phone ringing...]

1 (Clinic Staff): BYU Student Health Center, this is Sarah speaking. How can I help you today?

2 (Student): Uh... hello? I want to make an appointment.

1: Sure! I can help you with that. Is this your first time calling us?

2: Yes. I am new student.

1: Okay, no problem. Can I get your full name, please?

2: Yes. Maria Otieno.

1: Thank you, Maria. Just to make sure I got it right, can you spell your last name for me?

2: Yes. It's O-T-I-E-N-O.

1: Got it. Thank you! And what do you need to see the doctor for today?

2: Um... I have been noticing some pain in my leg that makes it difficult to walk.

1: Okay, I'll schedule you for a general check-up. What day works best for you?

2: Umm....Monday.

1: Morning or afternoon?

2: Morning, please.

1: All right, we have an opening at 9:40 a.m. on Monday. Does that work?

2: Yes. That is good.

1: Okay, Maria. You are booked for Monday at 9:40 a.m. Please come 10 minutes early and bring your BYU ID card, and your insurance card.

2: Okay, I will bring them.

1: Great! Anything else I can help you with?

2: No, thank you.

1: You're welcome. See you Monday, Maria !

2: Okay! Bye!

1: Bye-bye.

Grocery Store: Talking with the Cashier

1 (Cashier): Hi there! How are you today?

2 (Student): Um... I'm good. Thank you. How are you?

1: I'm doing great, thanks for asking!

1: Did you find everything okay today?

2: Uh... yes. I found the milk. And bread. And eggs.

1: Awesome! Those are all good things to have.

1: Do you have a membership card with us?

2: No. This is my first time here.

1: Oh, okay! No problem at all. We have a rewards card, if you want.

2: Rewards?

1: Yeah, it gives you discounts sometimes. You can sign up later if you want.

2: Ahh, okay. Maybe next time.

1: Sure! Do you want a bag for your things?

2: Yes, please. One bag is okay.

1: All right. I'll bag these for you.
1: Your total today is nine dollars and forty-seven cents.
2: Nine forty-seven... okay. Can I pay with my card?
1: Yes, go ahead and tap or insert it here.
2: Like this? [Taps the card]
1: Yes, perfect.
1: Payment accepted! Here's your receipt.
1: You're all set. Have a great day!
2: Thank you. You too.
1: See you next time!
